Dominican to Get Help Economically

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The chief coordinator of the Alliance for Progress program says it will begin work in the Dominican Republic as soon as possible to help restore economic stability and thus aid this nation's steps toward democracy.

Teodoro Moscoso, Latin American director for the U.S. agency for international development, arrived here Sunday with a staff of technicians.

The urgency of his mission was underlined by his arrival only four days after diplomatic relations between Washington and Santo Domingo were resumed following the lifting of sanctions imposed on the defunct Trujillo dictatorship last year by the Organization of American States.

Moscoso met briefly with President Joaquin Balaguer and the ruling State Council, which is grappling with trade deficits and unemployment estimated as high as 600,000.

"The mission's purpose," Moscoso told a news conference, "is to collaborate in a secure alliance of effort to see that the Dominican Republic fulfills its democratic destiny as an outstanding ally of free nations of the hemisphere."

New evidence of the political difficulties facing the government came Sunday night when three air force officers threatened to resign unless the armed forces chief, Gen. Pedro Rodriguez Echavarria, steps out. Two second lieutenants and a captain accused him of continuing "the autocratic regime" of the assassinated dictator, Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo.

Fire Kills One, Two Are Burned

LONOKE, Ark. (AP)—Howard Stracner, 42, was killed and his son and stepdaughter were burned in a fire which destroyed their house two and one-half miles north of here early today.

Mrs. Shirley Cox, Stracner's stepdaughter, was hospitalized in Little Rock with burns on 80 percent of her body. Her condition is critical, hospital officials said.

Stracner's 14-year-old son, Bobby, was hospitalized in good condition in Little Rock with burns on his hands, back and chest.

The victim's wife and their two-year-old grandson escaped serious injury. Officers said Mrs. Stracner suffered minor burns and the baby none.

Sheriff Warren Minton said the fire was discovered in a front part of the house by Mrs. Stracner who aroused the family.

Minto said Stracner apparently tried to escape through the living room and was trapped by flames.

Cause of the fire was not immediately known.

Police said Krill did not recover the money he lost.

Cafe Closed by Gambling Complaint

LAKE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP)—Chicot County Sheriff John H. Biggs closed a new cafe south of here Sunday after a tourist complained that he lost $480 there gambling.

Warren J. Krill of East Chicago, Ind., told Mayor Jack R. Rhodes that he and his wife stopped for a meal at the cafe Friday night and when he started to pay the check he was told that he had won two free throws on the dice.

Rhodes quoted Krill as saying he won at first, but as the stakes grew he began losing.

Krill and Al Covy, the cafe manager, appeared in Justice of the Peace Court Saturday. Krill was fined $10 for gambling but the fine was suspended. Covy was fined $100 and costs for main-about the legislation which must pass through the Ways and Means Committee and its Senate counterpart, the Finance Committee. The chairmen of both, Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., and Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., attended the session.

Monday Kennedy made unusual efforts to enlist bipartisan support for his foreign policies.

A White House briefing of Democratic and Republican leaders of both houses on world conditions was supplemented by a more detailed rundown at a luncheon given by Secretary of State Dean Rusk for a bipartisan senatorial group.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, who attended both sessions, said in an interview it seems obvious to him that Kennedy's batting average in the new session which opens Wednesday will be affected by international developments.

"If the world situation becomes more intense, it will tend to strengthen the President's hand," Dirksen said.

Others who sat in on both meetings reported that the administration feels it is holding its own in the never-slackening battle with world communism.

But as an indication of the conflict that may lie ahead on issues with domestic and foreign impact,

The explosion reportedly killed four persons and wounded 27 others, including an army commander. One of the dead and 14 of the wounded were children.

Although the Celebes, Sumatra and other outer islands were the scene of a determined revolt against Sukarno's rule in 1958, the president told a reception in Makassar that preliminary investigation showed "Dutch henchmen" were behind the latest assassination attempt.

"This is the fourth attempt on my life," he said. "I pray to God for His grace."

Sukarno looked composed at the reception, apparently having recovered from the initial shock. Aides said he was badly shaken by the blast. U.S. Ambassador Howard P. Jones, who was traveling with Sukarno's official party, said he "looked a little pale" afterward.

"Investigations indicate Dutch-inspired agents are behind this outrage," Yusuf said. "The aim of these people was to break the fighting spirit of Indonesia. This incident shows the cruelty of the Dutch."

Nearby when the grenade went off as Sukarno's motorcade passed was Soviet cosmonaut Gherman Titov, a member of Sukarno's party. He was not hurt and his car was undamaged. Titov looked relaxed and smiling when he attended a student rally ad-ville. The U. S. Weather Bureau at Little Rock reports more snow expected today and colder tomorrow. Snowfall over the state is expected to reach 4 inches or more. A high of 23 is forecast, and a low of 10 tonight.

Fayetteville registered a low of 9 degrees last night, while other temperatures around the state were mostly in the tens.

State Police say highways are slick and hazardous from the freezing rain and sleet that preceded the snow, and all available men are on duty.

Several minor accidents have been attributed to the weather but no fatalities have been reported.

Several rural school systems have closed the schools, including all the schools in Bradley County. Schools in most urban areas were scheduled to open at last report.

Her Husband Has the Sillies

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband and I are married 13 years, have a 12-year-old daughter and until now were reasonably happy.

Five weeks ago I suddenly realized we were growing further and further apart and begged him to be frank with me. To my surprise, he was! He had been seeing a lot of a friend of mine, picking her up somewhere downtown then driving out in the country, parking the car and talking. He even admitted exchanging a few kisses but nothing more. This woman, though married, has a reputation for playing footsie with other men. Yet my husband will not tolerate one word spoken against her and has as much as said that if I would give him a

Warns Dam Will Flood State Park

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The state director of parks warned Saturday that a portion of the proposed site of Arkansas Post National Park in southeast Arkansas may be flooded if an Arkansas River dam is built.

The director, Byron Stearns, said water behind the dam would permanently inundate 440 acres of the proposed park site while another 170 acres would face periodic flooding.

The post, which was established as a national park by Congress in 1960, the first permanent white settlement in the Lower Mississippi Valley.

Some $65,000 was appropriated last year by the Arkansas Legislature to buy land. No property has been yet acquired.

Stearns said that while he doesn't think the inundation by the proposed dam would void legislative approval of the park, it would likely cause officials to seek a new location.

No state funds will be spent until final decisions are reached concerning the dam, Stearns said.

Alford Raps the 'One Man Rule'

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., warned Saturday night of what he termed the danger of letting one man "take unto himself the authority of the people to govern themselves."

Alford, who announced his candidacy for governor last month, spoke to the 40 and 8 into which he was initiated. The fun-making group was formerly associated with the American Legion.

The Arkansas congress man, while not being specific, warned against "one man rule" and urged a return to independence and patriotism.

He cited as an example President Kennedy's request for authority to raise or lower tariffs.

The tariff power, Alford said, is too much for one man to wield.

Same Teams Lead Current Cage Poll

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Ohio State, one of the two major college basketball teams still unbeaten, maintained its unblemished record with the sports writers and broadcasters, too, receiving first-place votes on all ballots cast this week in The Associated Press poll.

Cincinnati and Kentucky held firmly to their second and third places, respectively. All others jockeyed positions although none of last week's top 10 fell out of the select group.

The University of Southern California, twice victors over California over the weekend, advanced two notches to fourth place. Kansas State and Villanova each dropped a berth to fifth and sixth, respectively. Kansas State lost to Colorado Saturday 75-61 and Villanova was knocked out the unbeaten list by West Virginia 80-62.

Mississippi State, which remained undefeated by shading Auburn 51-48 for its 10th triumph, jumped two places to seventh. Bowling Green climbed to ninth while Duquesne dropped a notch to eighth and Duke fell two positions to 10th.

The Ohio State Buckeyes, led by John Havlicek and Jerry Lucas, swept past Northwestern 85-62 for their 11th straight triumph, and Cincinnati whipped St. Louis and Tulsa to boost its record to 11-1. Kentucky (10-1) knocked off Virginia and Georgia Tech to extend its unbeaten string to nine.

The top 10, based on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 vote count with first place votes in parentheses:

1. Ohio State (41) 410

2. Cincinnati 363

3. Kentucky 327

4. Southern California 249

5. Kansas State 205

Smackover Player to Join Porks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) - University of Arkansas officials announced today that Joe Black, standout Smackover High School fullback, has said he will enroll here next fall.

Black, one of the most sought-after schoolboy athletes in the state, had offers from several schools. He reportedly was considering the University of Alabama, Arkansas' opponent in the recent Sugar Bowl game.

Black, an all-state schoolboy selection, will sign a grant-in-aid scholarship shortly after the Feb. 1 starting date for signing, university officials indicated.

Jurgensen Has Shoulder Surgery

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - The Philadelphia Eagles' all-pro quarterback, Sonny Jurgensen, underwent surgery today to repair his right shoulder which was severely separated in the National Football League Runnerup Bowl.

The surgeon, Dr. Mike Mandarino, who also is the club's team physician, said the 27-year-old star who set passing records in his first year as a regular "should be all right for next season."

"He might even be playing basketball in about eight weeks," said Mandarino.

Frisco Depot Case Studied by ACC

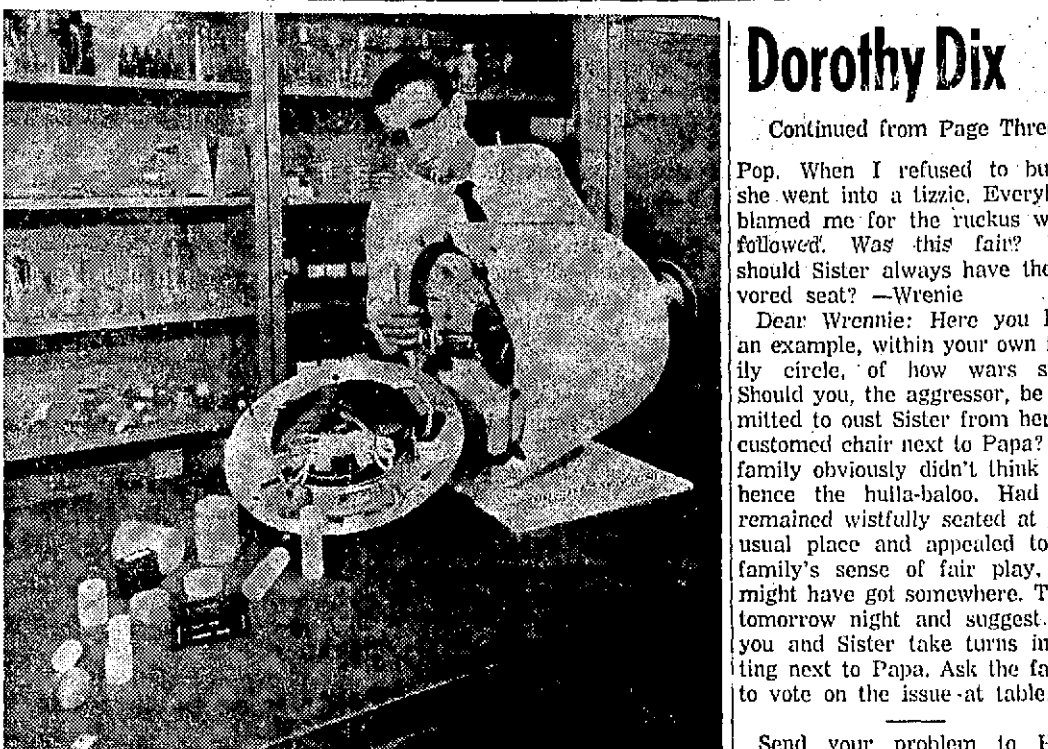

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Arkansas Commerce Commission took under advisement today a request by the Frisco Railroad for permission to demolish its depot at Clarkdale (Crittenden County).

No one opposed the request at a brief public hearing today.

Frisco was permitted to stop agency services at Clarkdale in 1959 and the depot has been vacant since then.

Pop. When I refused to budge, she went into a tizz. Everybody blamed me for the ruckus which followed. Was this fair? Why should Sister always have the favored seat? -Wrennie

Dear Wrennie: Here you have an example, within your own family circle, of how wars start. Should you, the aggressor, be permitted to oust Sister from her accustomed chair next to Papa? The family obviously didn't think so - hence the hullabaloo. Had you remained wistfully seated at your usual place and appealed to the family's sense of fair play, you might have got somewhere. Try it tomorrow night and suggest that you and Sister take turns in sitting next to Papa. Ask the family to vote on the issue - at table.

Burns Fatal to Negro Girl

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Shirley Hartley, 17, a Batesville Negro, died in a hospital here Saturday of burns suffered in a fire at her home Dec. 31.

Officers said the accident occurred when the girl's clothing caught fire as she stood near an open gas heater. She suffered burns on 80 per cent of her body.

sensible thing."

"Is that your excuse for coming as a guest to a country and tramping on it's conventions and traditions?"

"Madam, I think your traditions are just a devious way of keeping the mass of Spaniards living in poverty. Of course, you promise them the moon. Insist that it's your right - and yours only - to give it to them. This keeps you in clover, and the peasants chained securely to their plows and fishing boats."

Dennis surprisingly scored a direct hit on Francesca. She seemed shaken.

"No - that's not true," she said, shaking her head quickly. "You - you must realize what it means to be unable to help. When you love you -" Francesca stopped in mid-sentence, and drew a deep breath. I saw that the surprising instant of vulnerability was gone; a look of cold steel came into her eyes. "Of course you wouldn't understand my feelings," she said.

"But let me promise you one thing, Mr. Campbell. You won't have your blind, stubborn way in this matter." She turned on her heel and left.

The encounter left Dennis in high spirits. "Hah! Did you see the look in her eyes when I thrust home?" He strolled about chuckling, swinging his arms exuberantly. Finally he said, "Do you think I was a bit too harsh?"

"What do you think?"

"I don't know. Did you notice she was quite upset?"

"Yes."

"Close to tears. Silly reaction. Out of character for her. I didn't mean to hurt her. What do you expect I should do?"

I smiled at him sadly. "But some accident insurance while there's time."

OUR ANCESTORS

by Quincy

"It's a nice enough apartment, but we can hear everything the next door neighbors say!"

"You had a chance to get out of here and you threw it away. Why?"

"I don't know. It's comfortable enough." He looked embarrassed.

Chapter XIV

After lunch I climbed up to the Snail. Dennis was having a beer on the terrace. I congratulated him on the progress he'd made on the road and delivered Polly's invitation.

He seemed pleased. "How nice of her! I'll be delighted." He was in fine spirits, exuding health and confidence. "Guess who just left?"

"Can't imagine."

"Chip Addleboey. We had a pleasant chat."

"Is he going to refund your rent money?"

"Well, he seemed prepared to. But I told him I was quite satisfied with the place, all in all. He's a good chap. Told me some amazing stories about the Chowder Club."

"You had a chance to get out of here and you threw it away. Why?"

"I don't know. It's comfortable enough." He looked embarrassed.

THE STORY: In order to distract Dennis Campbell from working, which is distasteful to all the residents of the Spanish village excepting the natives, Polly Soames has invited him to a party.

"Also, building this road is a challenge."

"Okay, it's your back, it's your vacation. Tell me this: have you met a girl in town named Millie Gunn?"

"Someone pointed her out to me. Will she be at the party tonight?"

"Yes. Polly's asking her for you."

"Good show. She's stunning."

"Dennis, in her time she's stunned men in group lots. A senior class at Yale, whole football teams, trainloads of GIs."

Millie blazed with pure amateur zeal. She had white skin and bright red hair, and the other equipment necessary to dazzle. But she had never made a dime from her conquests. Divorce lawyers wept at her gallant refusals to levy fiscal vengeance on former admirers. Instead she remained chums with them; lent them cash if they needed it, advised them about new wives, mourned or rejoiced at the swing of their fortunes.

If Millie wanted Dennis, she'd get him. She was kind and decent and merry. It was better than breaking his back on the road to the Snail.

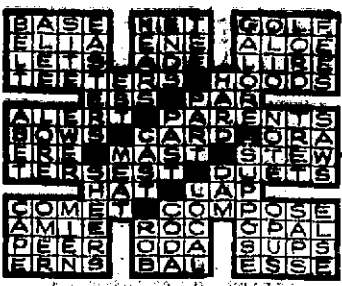

At that moment a maid appeared. "Senor? La Marquesa."

"Hah!" Dennis rubbed his hands. "Show her in."

Texarkana in Twin Win Over Local Teams

By VINCE FOSTER

Texarkana took two games from Hope last night, both by good margins, as they whipped the Lady Cats 44-29 and the B team 43 to 26.

The "Town" ladies pulled out front 10-7 and 27-17 in the first two quarters, and then there was a defensive battle in the third quarter with Hope on the street end of a 6-3 tally. On cold 11-9 in the final period, they were behind 44-29 at the buzzer. Melba Calhoun was high with 17, followed by Calhoun, Ward and Lloyd with five, four and three respectively. Presswood led the victors with 16 points.

The B boys trailed throughout the game and only outscored the larger Porkers in the second quarter, leaving the score 29-13 at the half. Texarkana stretched the margin to 47 points before the final buzzer and were led by Nulton with 16. Thrash, McMichael and Sprague had 5 each for Hope and Way, Jones, Reinhardt and Wright sank two each with Marcum taking one.

The Junior and Senior Girls and the "B" team play next to Emmet tonight with the first contest starting at 6:30.

Attendance in Pro Loop Sets Record

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Surging National Football League attendance hit a record high of 3,660,159 in 1961 with an average crowd of 40,675 at each of 93 regular season games.

"We are enthusiastic about the general balance of our attendance," said Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who was re-elected Monday for a new five-year term at $50,000 a year.

"From 1952 to 1959, Los Angeles was very successful with big crowds of 70,000 and 75,000 accounting for a good share of our attendance. Although the teams were not utilizing their biggest stadium in the league to full capacity, our attendance still went up. That is a healthy trend. We are sorry we missed by only 14,000 from hitting the 4 million mark."

Jim Kensil, league public relations chief, did not announce any individual club breakdown when he released the official paid attendance figures. He said the average crowd in 1961 was 40,675, compared with 40,106 in 1960.

Unofficial Associated Press figures showed that Cleveland led the league with 426,896, followed by New York with 423,949 and Philadelphia with 412,318. The biggest single turnout was 80,455 at Cleveland for the Nov. 26 game with New York.

The re-election of Rozelle was no surprise because the league has enjoyed unprecedented success in his regime. He just finished the second year of an original three-year term following his election as a compromise choice at the stormy 1960 meeting. Although Rozelle received no salary increase, it was expected that adjustments would be made after current problems have been resolved.

"We may expand in the next five years," said Rozelle. "Right now we have no immediate plans for adding clubs. We want to get the Dallas and Minnesota franchises well off the ground first. The new stadium at Washington has been the big plus of the last two years. New parks in St. Louis and Pittsburgh by 1964 or 1965 are two important keys to the future."

The NFL turned down a proposal to increase the player limit from 36 to 38 men. It also rejected a suggestion to set up an injured player reserve list. Injured players, not inactivated for the season, must continue to go through the waiver system before they can be restored to the active list.

Dressen Will Start His 30th Year

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Charlie Dressen, fiery, outspoken 63-year-old peppercorn, was back in baseball today for his 30th consecutive year as a manager or coach in the majors and minors.

Fired as manager of the Milwaukee Braves at the tailend of the 1961 season, Dressen rejoined the Braves system Monday, signing on as field boss of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the International League and extending an unbroken string of managing or coaching jobs that began in 1932.

While Dressen left the unemployed ranks, equally outspoken Carl Furillo, one of the stars for Dressen's Dodger teams of the early 1950s, remained on the outside after Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick denied he is being blacklisted by major league clubs.

Dressen, connected with baseball in some capacity since he began playing in 1919, said he could have had "four or five" jobs managing Triple A teams, but liked the Toronto offer best. He noted Toronto is considered as a possible addition if and when the majors expand again.

Furillo, dropped by the Los Angeles Dodgers midway in the 1959 season when he refused to report to their minor league club at Spokane, has been trying to hook on with a major league club as a player, coach or scout.

A former National League batting champion with a .344 average in 1933, the 39 year old outfielder claims he is being blacklisted by all major league teams. "There is no such thing as a baseball blacklist," Frick said. The New York Mets, petitioned by Furillo for a job, concurred: "We reserve the right to hire our own personnel. There's no blacklist. After all, Furillo is going to be 40 years old."

Lewisville Native Coach of LSU

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)

Charles McClendon, a gridiron genius known as "a coach's coach," Monday won his spurs as a head football coach—succeeding Paul Dietzel at Louisiana State.

For McClendon, a 38-year-old Lewisville, Ark., native, it was a promotion from the ranks. He served seven years as Dietzel's chief assistant until Dietzel left last Friday to become head coach at West Point.

Athletic Director Jim Corbett said he polled the LSU board of supervisors late Sunday night about McClendon and is recommending a four-year contract at $18,000 annually.

McClendon joined LSU in 1953 after serving one year as an aide at Vanderbilt.

Spring Hill and Laneburg Split Three

The Spring Hill basketball team captured two games from Laneburg last weekend while losing one.

Jackie Kidd with 13 points led the Spring Hill Junior Girls to a 27-17 victory. Sue Almand made 13 for Laneburg.

The Spring Hill Senior Girls dropped a 38 to 33 decision to the Laneburg ladies. Murrah tallied 27 points for the winners and Janice Hatch tossed in 20 for Spring Hill.

The Hempstead Sr. boys' team led by Ronnie Garner with 17, took a 48 to 36 decision over the Laneburg boys. Larry Carlton made 13 for the losers.

Rookie Wins Major Prize in L. A. Open

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A rookie with only six months experience on the tournament trail has won the first major prize of his professional golfing career, the $45,000 Los Angeles Open.

Phil Rodgers of La Jolla, Calif., routed the older, more established pros Monday with a tournament record nine-under-par 62 and 72-hole total of 268. A pro barely a year, Rodgers left his nearest challengers behind by nine strokes and carried home $7,500.

It was the widest margin of victory since Mike Souchak piled up the same score over Billy Casper and Doug Ford in the Motor City Open at Northville, Mich., in August 1959.

Rodgers' round cracked the 36-year-old tournament record of 63 shared by Tommy Bolt (1956) and Ken Venturi (1959) and erased the 72-hole score of 272 set by Lloyd Mangrum in 1956.

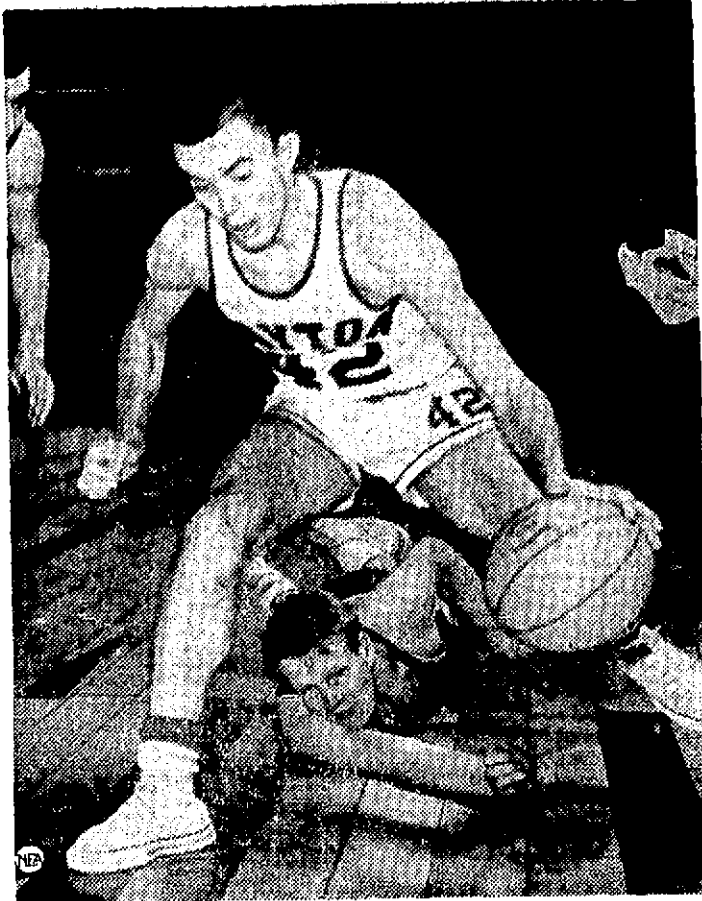

Rodgers' previous fame was limited. He won the national collegiate championship as a sophomore in 1958 at the University of Houston. He was low amateur in the Los Angeles Open in 1960. Last year he won the Mexican Open in Mexico City, and in October he won the Sahara Professional at Las Vegas.

Rodgers' first three rounds here were 67-71-68. Most observers thought he would yield to pressure on the final round and the winning effort would come from Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex.; Bob Goalby, the 1961 L.A. Open winner; Lionel Hebert or possibly even a late challenger Mike Souchak.

Rodgers squelched that when he moved into a 3-stroke lead in the first nine holes and never let up with his birdie-barrage. Rancho Golf Club's par is 36-35-71. Rodgers did it in 32-30-62.

For the record, Hawkins and Goalby were the runners-up at 277. It was worth $3,325 apiece. The more famous players closed strong but were never serious contenders. They included:

NCAA Asks for Delay in Sports Probe

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association has urged the White House to hold off a possible federal investigation of its power struggle with the national AAU until "all avenues of negotiations are exhausted," executive director Walter Byers said today.

"The report I gave to White House representatives was that I, personally, felt that intervention by the federal government, from either the executive or legislative branches, should come as a last resort," Byers told the Associated Press.

"If it develops that a reasonable solution to these difficulties cannot be obtained, then I am sure the colleges will be the first to welcome the government's help."

Byers' confirmation to the Oakland Tribune's report that President Kennedy has been urged by several West Coast senators to intervene came in the wake of another step in the NCAA-AAU fight, this one involving track and field.

Opening the week-long NCAA convention, Byers announced Monday that the NCAA had been petitioned by track coaches to take the lead in formation of a U.S. track and field federation that would greatly reduce AAU influence in the sport.

A similar federation has been proposed by the NCAA in basketball in the continuing struggle over representation of the international bodies in both sports. Colleges, together with high schools and armed forces, have said the AAU has done a poor job in its conduct of affairs in basketball and track and field, particularly in regard to international matters.

The proposed federation would be composed of representatives of the NCAA, AAU, armed forces and high schools. A similar federation in which the YMCA would be included has been proposed by the NCAA in basketball.

If the struggle can't be settled among the two groups, the international organizations in the respective sports would hold the final authority.

No Gripe About Officiating

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—American Football League club owners, managers and coaches will be fined up to $1,000 if they gripe in public about officiating, Commissioner Joe Foss says.

He said Monday night he won't fine Sid Gillman, San Diego Chargers coach, for griping publicly about officials in the championship game but added:

"If they complain in the press at booster club meetings in the future, I'll give 'em the ax."

Foss said he told the unhappy AFL representatives to take their gripes to the leagues office. Monday's sessions were taken up with a treasurer's report, player retirement fund discussion, a briefing on a $10 million suit against the rival National Football League and officiating.

Once-Beaten Razorbacks to Meet SMU

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Once-beaten Arkansas takes on league-leading Southern Methodist in an important Southwest Conference basketball game here tonight.

The Hogs, who lost a nine-game winning streak in a 73-69 defeat by Texas at Austin Saturday night, will have to find some way of defending against SMU's scoring star, Jan Loudmilk.

His average of 18.1 points per game leads the Southwest Conference. He is also the team's top rebounder and was the vital cog in a 70-53 victory over Texas Christian and 73-60 triumph over Baylor in SMU's only conference games.

The Mustangs are tied with Rice for the league lead with 2-0 records. Arkansas, Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech all are 1-1.

Arkansas' Jerry Carlton, the sharpshooting guard who battled with Loudmilk for the scoring lead at the height of the Hog's winning streak, dropped to fifth place last week with a 16.8 average. He scored only nine points against Texas.

He'll be trying to get back in form tonight, and with him on the Arkansas starting lineup will be guard Jerry Roger, forwards Tommy Boyer and Larry Wofford and center Jim Wilson.

With Loudmilk on the Pony starting five will be Jim Thompson, a 6-2 guard who has a 13.4 average; guard Jim Brockman, 6-1, forward Jim Hammond, 6-4, and center Dave Stigmund, 6-7.

Arkansas has the best season record of SWC teams, 9-2. SMU is second with 8-3.
